

The Christmas Way

Text: Ralph van Manen

Musik: Tore W. Aas

Nobody ever expected. Nobody thought this way.
There in the dark of a stable: Jesus asleep on the hay.

Deep in the calm and silent night everyone sees a new light.
God in his love turns night to day. Behold the Christmas Way.

Who can believe without seeing. Trust in a hopeful heart.
Open your ears and receive it. This was the plan from the start.

Deep in the calm and silent night everyone sees a new light.
God in his love turns night to day. Behold the Christmas Way.

Beautiful message of Christmas. Truly the kingdom's near.
Woman and man just like children now can rejoice without fear.

God loved the world and gave his son. Good news for everyone.
Though you're in debt, no need to pay. It's called the Christmas way.
